Arise, O compatriots,
Nigeria's call obey
To serve our fathers'land
With love and strength and faith
The labor of our heroes past
Shall never be in vain
To serve with heart and might
One nation bound in freedom,
peace and Unity.

Oh God of creation,
direct our noble cause
And guide our leaders right
Help our youth the truth to know
In love and honesty to grow
And living just and true
Great lofty heights attain
To build a nation where peace and justice shall reign.

Welcome Address

by the Chairman, NBA Ikeja Branch

Bartholomew Aguegbodo

Chairman, NBA Ikeja Branch.

I am immensely grateful to God who has preserved our lives in the light of all to be part of this great tradition. It is with great pleasure that I welcome you all to this year 2021 Law Week. Law Week is an annual tradition celebrated by all branches of the Nigerian Bar Association. This 2021 Law week promises to be enriched and garnished with insightful flavours.

This is a time for knowledge gathering, a time to distill ideas, a time we dialogue on issues centering around the legal profession and the ways improvement could be made.

I will want to appreciate all members of Ikeja branch of the Nigerian Bar Association particularly the guiding lights of the branch, the Elders and the young lawyers; who have been part of the tenure of this administration worthwhile.

We want to also appreciate the Law Week planning committee, Chairman, Dada Awosika, SAN and the alternate Chairman of the committee Ms. Iyabode Oshodi, the ever industrious and hardworking secretary of the committee Chukwudi Enebeli, ESQ. and the entire members of the committee for the efforts and commitments in ensuring the success of this great programme.

To the Guests of Honour, Keynote Speaker, Discussants, Judges and Lawyers; all invited guests and friends of the Bar, we are highly grateful. We promise that this year's law week will be engaging and insightful.

There cannot be a better time to host the Law Week with a theme such as this: "Nigeria of our Dream." It was in 2004 or 2005 that the then President and Commander in-Chief of armed forces of Nigeria, Chief Olusegun Obasanjo heavily promised and hung the hope of Nigerians toward making a better nation as he seriously talked about Vision 20:20. Last year was the long awaited and heavily promised year but artificial events turned it to be one of the most economically and otherwise setback year.

Even as 2021 is riding on the second phase of its existence, there is no tendency for any fulfilment on that vision. This is a pointer to the issue at hand as we are unlucky with leadership in this part of the world that has necessitated constant subversion of a dream laid down by our nationalist and Patriots that extricated and pulled this country out from the shackles of the oppressive hand of the colonialists.

It is pertinent at this point to give a fundamental background to this as it will enable us get a clearer picture of the case we are about undertaking. Posterity

Welcome Address (contd)

by the Chairman, NBA Ikeja Branch

will speak volume for the Azikiwe, Awolowo, Ahmadu Bello and others who brought out their chest to receive bullets for our survival. Their sacrifices are immeasurable and unquantifiable and deserve a sacred place in history.

They conceived and hatched an architectural design for this country embedded in their style of leadership. Although it is not out of place to say that there were some of their policies that were faulted and frowned at but on the average, their performance passed some good grade level and highly commendable.

Nigeria and her dream, a reality that many aspired to have faced the worst kind of torture anchored on tribal sentiment and failure of leadership. It is on this foregoing that the literary icon, Chinua Achebe in one of his books opined after much dissections have been carried on the country, agreed that the failure of Nigeria can be traced to her leadership and honestly, I agree to it.

Subsequent leaders of Nigeria dealt with this country ranging from their policies and others. This has dwindled the greatness of this country and made it a shadow of itself. This is quite appalling as Nigeria, a one time giant of Africa is today living on past glory after years of fall out.

In the heat of this, we have refused to give up but remain optimistic in the midst of all odds in saving the country from putting the right structure in place to enable the country work again. Its disfunctional nature has awoken many consciousness and given room for agitation of one kind or the other.

I have always opined that there is no where in the world where conflict and war solves problem. What does, is a round table discussion to discuss all matters that have raised suspicion and fear, disagreement and divergence in the country. In doing this, no form of expert is required but all hands need to be on deck to anchor the sea to its shore.

While this is on the way as a proactive suggestion that has every tendency of adoption and survival to fly. It is also pertinent to look at some options of vehicle that can be used to convey all ideas to the table for equal distribution to the society for a better country. In this forgoing, it becomes necessary to adopt a political method which is one quick and quicker way of throwing up necessary discussions to advance our course. We discourage all forms of apathy and preach for all inclusiveness in the political doings of the country and proper checkmating of the system in the electioneering process.

We have chosen to get a key to unlock Nigeria and give it a face as it is our utmost concern to position Nigeria in a way that will profit and benefit us. It is a collective struggle and its gain, a plus to all of us.

As we sojourn into this new dawn of making Nigeria of our dream, it will be quite interesting to roll out few balls for all eyes to be on it. The Nigeria of our dream will anchor its journey devoid of ethnic sentiment and will form a structural balance that will allow all ethnic nationality to have control over its resources and equitable federal character.

This will give voice to all and address the fears of the minority. Others will be rolled out as event progresses.

But a take home is, there seems and likely confirmed and carries a big tendency of an envisaged light in all.

Most certainly, there will be light at the end of the tunnel.

Nigeria will be great again as embedded in our dream.

I wish you all a successful law week.

Long live Nigerian Bar Association, Ikeja branch.

Long live Nigerian Bar Association.

Long live Nigerian.

Thank you all.

Bartholomew Aguegbodo Esq.

Welcome Address

by the Chairman, Law Week Committee

Mr. Dada Awosika

SAN

Chairman,
Law Week Committee NBA,
Ikeja Branch.

I consider it a privilege to be considered worthy as the Chairman of the Annual Law week of Ikeja Branch of our great association.

Thank You to each and everyone of you for being here with us today. We are pleased to be able to welcome our great colleagues (both at the inner and outer bar), distinguished speakers, invited guests, members of the Young Lawyers Forum (YLF) and members of the public.

Before we get started, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all members of EXCO NBA Ikeja branch; members of Annual law week committee and our sponsors who have generously helped us to make this event come together to become a success.

The Annual law week is one of the cherished traditions of our noble Association, though was put on hold in 2020 due to the restrictions imposed as a result of Covid-19 pandemic. Usually, it is a week long event characterised by various activities from interdenominational services to days of knowledge-sharing sessions and climaxing with a dinner. The week affords Lawyers, Politicians and Stakeholders in the justice sector a platform to dialogue on critical issues affecting the legal profession and our country.

The theme for this year law week is - 'The Nigeria of our Dreams'. This certainly speaks to the mood of the nation particularly at a moment like this when we all have to contend with a never-seen-before state of National Insecurity in the form of armed robbery, banditry, kidnapping and insurgency. There is also never ending clamour for restructuring and secession.

During the next few days, we have amiable and seasoned speakers/panelists to speak to various topics that we have deliberately and meticulously chosen to go with the theme. We have no doubt that this will trigger or stimulate conversations and action points within which our noble Association may be said to have played its part in our nation building towards a prosperous Nigeria.

Once again, a very warm welcome to each and everyone of you.

GOODWILL MESSAGE

Our Law Firm, PINHEIRO LP, is not only delighted to partner with the Ikeja Branch of the Nigerian Bar Association but also congratulates the Executive and entire membership of the Branch on its 2021 Law Week.

Kemi Pinheiro SAN, FCI Arb

The theme for this year's Law week: "The Nigeria of Our Dreams" strikes a chord and delivers an echoing reminder to not only members of the Branch, but also the entire Bar, nationally and internationally, that lawyers must as matter of religion remain the vanguard for socio-economic, legal and political engineering and nation building. To put it in picturesque terms, the literal 'building' of the Nigeria of our Dreams, as we yearn, rests on every stratum of the nation, with lawyers as the major protagonists. We mean, with maintenance of law and order, speedy administration of justice and respect for the Rule of Law; 'block by block' - from one statutory (constitutional or subsidiary legislative) review and judicial activism to the other- we will build, or at least, lead the way, in helping to build the Nigeria of our Dreams. Regardless of the global realities, we, as lawyers will always, and at every opportunity, play our part.

We wish all delegates delightful deliberations, remindful and thought-provoking sessions at the Law Week.

PINHEIRO LP

“There is no better time than now to start laying the building blocks to achieve our dreams.”

Seni Adio, SAN
Managing Partner
Copley Partners

The Law Firm, Copley Partners, congratulates the Executive Committee and the entire membership of the Ikeja Branch of the Nigerian Bar Association, on its 2021 Law Week. The theme: “The Nigeria of Our Dreams” creates a welling of mixed emotions considering the promise that our Nation has had for decades, yet unfulfilled and, simultaneously, conjures hope that we are destined for greatness – it’s just a matter of time.

Lest we remain the proverbial “dreamers”, there is no better time than now to start laying the building blocks to achieve our dreams. We will not want to convene in ten [10] years and still be – alas – “[Dreaming About] The Nigeria of Our Dreams”. Bluntly stated, that would be a Nightmare!

Back to being euphoric, optimistic, and accountable – We Must Be The Change That We Wish To See In Nigeria, to paraphrase an oft-quoted saying by Mahatma Gandhi.

We wish all the delegates a most insightful and inspiring week towards realizing THE NIGERIA OF OUR DREAMS.

GOODWILL MESSAGE FROM Y.C. MAIKYAU, SAN; CHAIRMAN, NBA WELFARE COMMITTEE, TO THE NBA IKEJA BRANCH, ON THE 2021 LAW WEEK OF THE BRANCH.

Dear Colleagues,

Permit me to seize this opportunity to congratulate the leadership and members of the Ikeja Branch of the NBA, on its Annual Law Week for the year 2021.

Lagos has a special place in my heart for a few personal reasons, one of which is that my stint here during the Oputa Panel remains indelible in my career.

The theme: “The Nigeria of our dreams” is quite refreshing, as it looks beyond our present gloomy circumstances to a future of our dreams. Whilst each of us have our individual and several dreams for Nigeria, we can collectively imagine a future so bright. A future that gives life to the words of our National Anthem of “One nation bound in freedom, peace and unity” and to “Help our youth the truth to know In love and honesty to grow. And living just and true
To build a nation where peace and justice shall reign..”

This Nation, as conceived in our Anthem, is not utopia but achievable through collective re-imagination, reorientation, rededication and sacrifice.

This law week presents an ideal opportunity at these 3 Rs and a shot at how to go about the necessary sacrifice for the greater good of our dear Nation, Nigeria. As we embark on these, suffice to add that so much of the future of our dreams depend on us as the Learned gentlemen of the legal profession.

It is my hope that at the end of this Law Week, we would come out better conditioned to help bring about the Nigeria of our dreams.

It is on this note that I wish all participants fruitful deliberations.

God bless NBA Ikeja Branch!
God bless the NBA!!
God bless the Federal Republic of Nigeria!!!

GOODWILL MESSAGE FROM JOE-KYARI GADZAMA, SAN TO IKEJA BRANCH OF THE NIGERIAN BAR ASSOCIATION ON THE CELEBRATION OF YOUR 2021 ANNUAL LAW

It is with great pleasure that I identify with and join you in marking this annual occasion with a very apt topic. I must confess that this theme: "The Nigeria of our Dreams", is not only crucial but also provokes our legal minds to proffer some solutions that will lead to achieving Nigeria of our dream in this upcoming event.

Considering the state of the nation and the many challenges that bedevil her, it is only expedient to reflect on our journey so far, what needs to be done that we are not doing or what we are doing that we ought to do away with so we can have the nation we all hope for.

Nigeria's national independence in 1960 was greeted with lots of funfairs because we held the belief and trust that self-governance would elevate the country to an enviable height and make our nation where all will be proud to live.

Gentlemen of the Bar, we have to face it; Nigeria has not fared well in view of the so many maladies that she grapples with, from poverty to endemic corruption, to youth unemployment, to segregation and marginalization in all facets, and the most burning issue: insecurity, which appears to have defied all basic techniques for a solution.

At this point, a more challenging poser is what technique we need to adopt to fix these challenges and build Nigeria of our dream?

I wish you well as you unravel and resolve the mystery behind this nation's challenges through your intellectual discourse.

Once again, I wish you all a fruitful celebration.

Thank you very much and God bless.

GOODWILL MESSAGE FROM JONATHAN GUNU TAIDI TO NIGERIA BAR ASSOCIATION IKEJA BRANCH ON HER 2021 ANNUAL LAW WEEK

I heartily congratulate the Chairman, the Executive, and distinguished Members of Ikeja Branch of the Nigerian Bar Association on the occasion of her 2021 Annual Law Week with the theme: "Nigeria of Our Dreams"

Indeed, we have not attained our dream country and now, more than ever before, the prospect seems bleak so holding a conversation around this theme is nothing if not apt.

In our efforts to enthrone a nation built on justice, equity and fairness therefore, it is imperative that we continuously identify and resolve the challenges that have impeded the realization of our dream country.

I wish you all an enjoyable and fulfilling Law Week.

GOODWILL MESSAGE FROM JOE-KYARI GADZAMA, SAN TO THE IKEJA BRANCH OF THE NIGERIAN BAR ASSOCIATION ON THE CELEBRATION OF YOUR 2021 LAW WEEK

On behalf of Janada International Centre for Arbitration and Mediation (JICAM) and my humble self, I write with profound joy to felicitate with the leaders and distinguished members of the NBA, Ikeja Branch on this occasion of your Law Week 2021.

I must also use this opportunity to commend your choice of theme for the programme: "THE NIGERIA OF OUR DREAMS" which I consider very apt in this perilous time in our dear country. I urge you all to brainstorm more committedly on issues affecting you all as a branch; Legal Profession; and Nigeria at large; and proffer ideas for a more promising future for all.

I wish you a memorable time at your Law Week 2021 and I pray that the wisdom you require for fruitful and effective deliberations will manifest in your midst.

Thank you.
